80 YEARS WED — Peter Peterson, 98, and his wife, 97, celebrate their 80th wedding anniversary at their home in Fairview, Utah. The Petersons, probably the nation's longest-wed couple, have seven living children of their original 10. The grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren have now reached a grand total of about 325.

80th Wedding Anniversary Starts with Prayer, as Usual

FAIRVIEW, Utah (AP) — All the days of their married life have started with a prayer, and today—their 80th wedding anniversary—was no exception for Peter and Celestia Peterson.

He is 98 and she is 97.

This central Utah town honored the couple with a testimonial dinner Wednesday night. A tape recording was made and will be played to them today because they couldn't make it to the dinner. Both are hard of hearing.

Mayor Otis Nielsen and Apostle LeGrand Richards of the Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) Church called their lives and marriage a shining example of love and devotion.

They were married Dec. 11, 1878, in St. George, Utah, 250 miles southwest of here.

"My wedding dress had ribbons on it, but Peter took them off," recalls the silver-haired Mrs. Peterson. "He said, 'You're pretty enough without those.' "

Peterson, then a strapping 18-year-old farmer, had driven a wagon load of grain eight days to get to St. George from here. The grain was sold to pay for their wedding journey, another eight-day trip by horse-drawn wagon through rugged mountainous country only recently cleared of hostile Indians.

Peterson credits their longevity to plain living and the fact that neither he nor his wife ever smoked or drank.

"We have always lived congenially," he said.

They have 253 blood descendants. Adding those related by marriage, the family tree numbers 326.

"I gave birth to 10 sons and daughters and only had a doctor for one of them," says Mrs. Peterson. Seven of the 10 survive and are among those honoring their parents today.

WCH Pair Admit Robbery of Cafe

For approximately $42, two Washington C. H. men, ages 21 and 31, will serve the next 10 to 25 years in the Ohio State Penitentiary, Columbus.

The men, Paul Hurles, 31, and Virgil Boggs, 21, were sentenced this morning in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court for participating in the Sept. 5 stickup of Mom and Pop's Place, west of Williamsport.

Both men pleaded guilty to the charges of armed robbery. They held up the small restaurant and grocery store with a blue steel revolver, then drove away in an automobile.

They were apprehended in their home town after a search throughout Central Ohio. The duo was indicted by the September Pickaway County Grand Jury.

• • •

AT ARRAIGNMENT, both men pleaded innocent. During his tenure in the County Jail, Boggs married, but his honeymoon will have to wait for at least six to eight years before he is eligible for parole.

Both Boggs and Hurles have past records which compelled Judge William Ammer to give them the maximum sentence.

Local Post Office Prepared For Expected Holiday Rush

The Circleville Post Office today announced it is ready for the Christmas mail rush, which hasn't been too heavy thus far, according to Postmaster Charles Walters.

Post office officials reported that packages have been moving well and that Monday was the first full day for heavy Christmas mailing. Christmas card mailings have not been as heavy as expected, but the full impact of the rush is expected the latter part of the week.

A total of 12 to 15 extra men have been signed up for mail carrying, but none have been used as yet. The post office will be open until 5:30 p. m. on Saturday and again on December 20 to handle the additional mail.

Post office officials ask all mail for the West Coast be posted now to assure arrival by the holidays. Christmas cards should be posted as early as possible.

• • •

PERSONS sending cards with only their signature may send them third class with a three-cent stamp and unsealed envelopes. All cards with personal notes written on them and sealed, must be sent first class with a four-cent stamp.

Return addresses upon first class mail will assure all letters and cards returned if corresponding parties are unable to be located.

Forms for bundled mail will be on hand in the lobby of the post office. Post office personnel offer the following suggestions on how patrons can aid in the handling of the holiday rush:

Buy your Christmas stamps now; always include the zone number in your delivery address; write legibly in addressing greeting cards and parcels; affix the correct number of stamps in the upper right hand corner of letters and parcels;

Separate all mailings, tying local and out-of-town bundles securely and using identifying labels provided by the post office; package, wrap and address all parcels carefully; address parcels on one side only, placing duplicate address inside the parcel.

Persons making purchases at the post office are asked to come early in the day to alleviate the long lines that form later on in the day.

Winter Aiming Another Snowy Punch at Ohio

More White Stuff Due To Sweep State; Low Temperature Is -18

More snow was scheduled to add insult to injury for most areas of frost-bitten Ohio today as temperature flirted with record-low readings for the date.

Apparently the Columbiana County village of Millport was the state's coldest spot — officially— early today with a reading of 18 below zero. Salem had an unofficial 19 below and Willoughby an unofficial 10 below.

Columbus and Delaware shivered in official 8 below temperatures and Zanesville with minus 7, Circleville with minus 6 and Youngstown and Chillicothe with 5 below weren't much warmer.

Other typical low readings recorded by the U.S. Weather Bureau included Akron-Canton minus 3, Dayton minus 2, Cleveland and Toledo minus 1.

Cincinnati missed the worst of the cold wave with a 10 above reading and Chesapeake in Lawrence County had 11 above.

Columbus missed a record low for the date, set in 1917, by only one degree. Akron-Canton missed a record by two degrees.

The state's primary highways this morning were reported slippery in spots. Northeast of a line marked by Cleveland, Chardon and Jefferson, roads were snow-covered.

Secondary roads are slippery in spots except southwest of a line marked by Eaton, Dayton, Chillicothe, McArthur and Pomeroy, where roads are normal.

The snow sweeping into Ohio from the northwest today was expected to cover all the state with the possible exception of the extreme south, by night, the Weather Bureau reported. Generally, it was expected the new fall would not be heavy except, possibly, near Lake Erie.

Clear skies in most sections of Ohio the last couple of days have been responsible for the record and near-record low temperatures. The lack of a cloud cover permits what little "heat" is stored up during the day to escape into the wild blue yonder quickly as soon as the sun sets.

Biggest accumulation of snow in Ohio is in the Ashtabula area. That city near the state's extreme northeast tip has upward of 26 inches of the white stuff on the ground and more on the way.

December's cold wave relaxed a little in the midcontinent today but there wasn't much relief in other areas in the Eastern half of the nation.

The full force of the cold air from the midlands hit the East and South, dropping temperatures to low marks for the season in some areas.

It was below zero in parts of northern New England.

Zero weather was in prospect deep into the mountains of West Virginia and western Virginia, with freezing temperatures ranging southward to the Carolinas and northern Georgia. The cold air mass remained nearly stationary in the Ohio Valley.

More snow fell in areas from northern Ohio into western New York. Oswego, N.Y., hit by more than 5 feet of snow since Sunday, got another half a foot overnight.

Two local building contractors estimated that damage has reached $500,000 and probably would go higher.

The battle to repair damage and prevent more resumed today in zero temperatures, with drifts more than 20 feet high.

Three families were reported evacuated from their homes during the night because of collapsing roofs.

So far, no injuries have been reported.

Most roads in the area had been opened and food supplies were considered adequate.

Winters Sends Another Snow For Tomorrow

Old Man Winter, due here in 11 days, has sent another advance calling card.

The weatherman today forecast considerable cloudiness and continued cold with snow tomorrow.

The mercury reached a "torrid" high of 14 degrees in the last 24 hours but slipped to a minus six during the early morning—the second day in a row for sub-zero temperatures.

Chill weather is responsible for at least two casualties Berger Hospital reported today.

Persons treated at the hospital yesterday and today, who fell due to slippery conditions, are:

MRS. BYRON MARTIN, 55, Route 1, Stoutsville, was admitted for injuries suffered when she fell at 4:40 p. m. yesterday on E. Main St. Her condition is reported as "good".

Richard Barcley, 30, Birmingham, Ala., suffered back and arm injuries when he slipped on the running board of a truck at 5:15 p. m. yesterday. He was admitted.

Dougherty Appliances, 147 W. Main St., distributors of Lindsay Water Softeners, has added a complete line of Norge and Coleman appliances.

The firm is owned by Charles (Chuck) Dougherty who has operated a similar store in Chillicothe for 12 years. His store has been selling and leasing the water softeners here the past several months.

Dougherty announced that his store will hold a grand opening here in January. He said the firm will feature complete sales and service. This will be made possible by five service department men and six sales personnel, he added.

Dougherty is a brother-in-law to Guy Stockman who operated the Snack-Shack Restaurant on S. Court St. for several years.

Current personnel at the W. Main St. store include Leonard Dougherty, a brother, Bob Butcher, 1127 Atwater Ave., Don Anderson, 422 E. Mound St., and Judy Palm, 136 Park St.

Hunter Admits Killing Pet Deer

PRESTON, Minn. (AP) — A Preston hunter pleaded guilty here Wednesday to charges stemming from the shooting of a rural family's three-legged pet deer. A second man accused in the same incident asked a jury trial.

James Simonson was fined $100 in Justice Court after pleading guilty to taking wildlife within 500 feet of a dwelling and livestock corral. The deer, which had lost one of its legs in a mower accident shortly after birth, was adopted as a pet by the Glen Hahn family who farm near Preston.

The Hahns said Simonson and Garry Ruesink of Preston came to the farm on the opening day of the deer season and shot the animal despite pleas it was a pet.

The jury trial requested by Ruesink was set for Dec. 18.

Tape Recordings Tell Plans For Bombing Religious Cult

CHATSWORTH, Calif. (AP) — Tape recordings discovered near the dynamited wreckage of the Fountain of the World monastery point to two former cult members as the bombers, police say.

Nine persons, possibly 10, were killed in Wednesday's earth-jarring explosion. The two dynamiters are believed to have shared the fate of their victims.

Detectives said the blast apparently was touched off by Ralph Muller, 33, and Peter Kamenoff, 42, both of Joshua Tree, Calif.

Tape recordings made by the pair the night before the dynamiting indicate they were angry at the leader of the cult, Krishna Venta, and wanted to "bring him to justice," officers said.

The tapes, an hourlong recital of grievances against Krishna and the cult, also were described as farewell messages and detectives believe the men deliberately blew themselves up.

Muller once confided to a friend that it was his ambition to depose Venta and set up a cult of his own to replace the Fountain of the World.

The suicidal nature of the bombing was underscored by the fact the triggering device had to be manually operated, presumably by one of the men who carried the dynamite into the building in a zippered bag.

Venta, a barefooted, self-styled mystic, five of his flock and two children were killed in the explosion. One and perhaps two other bodies have also been recovered. The violent explosion and the fire that followed made identification nearly impossible.

Muller and Kamenoff were seen in an argument with Venta about an hour before the blast. Details of the quarrel were not known.

The tape recordings were found in Muller's pickup truck, parked near the cult's 29-acre colony in Box Canyon, about 30 miles northwest of Los Angeles.

After listening to them, officers pieced together this story:

Muller and Kamenoff left their desert home in Joshua Tree about 115 miles east of Los Angeles — picked up 20 sticks of dynamite and electric primers and drove to the cult area.

They registered at a motel in nearby Tarzana, set up their recorder and taped their last words.

"They said they wanted to bring Krishna Venta to what they termed justice," said Undersheriff B. B. Cummings of Ventura County. "Whether they meant religious or otherwise, I wouldn't attempt to say.

Officers said Kamenoff blamed Venta for separating him from his wife and child by persuading her to stay in the cult's Homer, Alaska, colony. Kamenoff also left a written farewell note, said detectvies.

Both men were construction workers. Kamenoff was a member of the cult from 1949 until 1957. Muller was a member off and on for several years.

Evan P. Ford For Liquor Boss?

There was speculation today that Evan P. Ford might be a candidate for state liquor chief in the new DiSalle administration.

Ford, unsuccessful candidate for Pickaway County Common Pleas judge, has made no comment. DiSalle has insisted he has no applications for liquor director, although he has had several for assistant liquor chief, the man who does the buying for the liquor department.

Ford reportedly lives near Ashville, although he maintains a law office in Canal Winchester in Franklin County.

X-RAY CRUISER — Pictured above is the Christmas Seal X-ray cruiser, which is in Ashville today and will be here tomorrow and Saturday. The cruiser, here annually for chest x-rays to discover possible tuberculosis sufferers, will be located on W. Main St., in front of G. C. Murphy Co.

X-ray Cruiser In County for Annual Survey

The Christmas Seal X-ray cruiser arrived in Pickaway County today for the annual survey of county residents for possible tuberculosis contamination.

The cruiser is in Ashville today. It is open from 10 a. m. until noon; 1 p. m. till 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9 p. m.

The hours for its Circleville stay are 10:30 a. m. until 1 p. m.; 2 till 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9:30 p. m. tomorrow and Saturday.

The public is invited to have a free chest X-ray during these hours. County Sanitarian, R. T. Blaney, today reminded all food handlers that they are required to have an annual tuberculosis checkup.

• • •

THE TUBERCULOSIS Assn., which sponsors the X-ray cruiser, is limiting the age to 15 years and over for the checkup, due to the difficulty of examining children's X-rays. Children who are cafeteria workers in the schools, will be given a checkup upon identification.

The money derived from the sale of Christmas seals is used for the annual X-ray cruiser's visit, plus rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients and health, education and research regarding this dreaded disease.

Union Barred From Holding Convention

U.S. Jurist Upholds Complaints Filed by Board of Monitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. District Court judge today ordered the Teamsters Union to comply with reform orders of court-appointed monitors. The union was barred from holding a scheduled new convention next March.

Judge F. Dickinson Letts upheld complaints of a two-man majority of the three monitors that the union under President James R. Hoffa had failed to comply in good faith with reform recommendations.

Judge Letts, noting that the monitors are officers of the court and subject to the court's supervision, said they have all powers reasonably necessary to bring about a cleanup of the union.

"The Teamsters are obliged to comply with such orders of recommendation (by the monitors) and in good faith cooperate with the monitors," he said.

Letts, an 83-year-old former Republican congressman from Iowa, rejected a contention that the role of the monitors is merely advisory in these words:

"The court does not subscribe to the view that the duties and privileges of the monitors are merely advisory."

Letts said in his 12-page memorandum opinion that the Teamsters, without the knowledge and consent or approval of the court-appointed monitors had issued a call for a convention in the early part of March 1959.

He ordered Hoffa and the Teamsters to cancel all plans for the scheduled special convention a session Hoffa frankly arranged to seek to end the monitorship.

The judge further expanded powers of the monitors so that their approval must be secured before a new convention can be held. A convention date was also made subject to approval by the court.

The issues in the case before Letts go back to the Teamsters' 1957 convention at which Hoffa was elected president to succeed Dave Beck Sr. Beck and Hoffa both had been named in testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee that large sums of union funds had been mishandled.

A group of New York area rank-and-file Teamsters members brought suit here seeking to block Hoffa from taking over the union presidency on grounds he and Beck had rigged the election of delegates to insure Hoffa's victory.

That suit was compromised, with an agreement that Hoffa and other newly elected union officers could take over provisionally with the monitors named to police a union cleanup. Martin F. O'Donoghue, a lawyer who helped defend the Teamsters in early stages of the case, eventually became chief monitor.

After eight months of trying out the novel monitor arrangement, O'Donoghue and Godfrey P.

Orient Seeks Writ To Force Division from Scioto Twp.

The village of Orient today filed a writ of mandamus with the Pickaway County Common Pleas Court, asking Judge William Ammer to change the township lines of Scioto Twp. making Orient a separate political subdivision.

The petition was filed by Orient's attorney, Richard W. Penn, 114½ N. Court St. Penn named County Commissioners, Wayne Hines, chairman, Harley Mace and Clyde Michel as respondents.

The petition stated that the village, a municipal corporation within Scioto Twp., petitioned the Commissioners for a change in the township lines and was refused.

The village seeks to be excluded from Scioto Twp. This would give Orient the benefit of taxes collected from residents within the village.

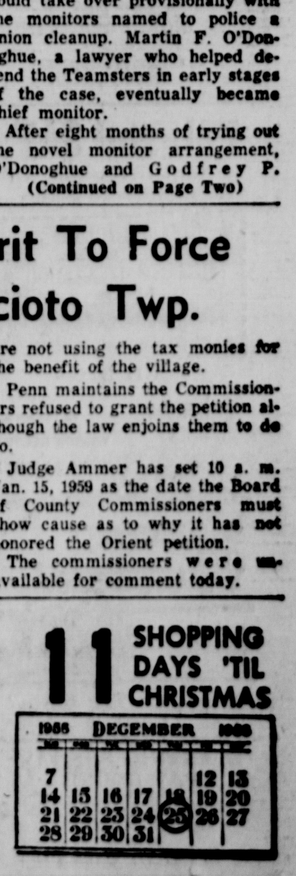

• • •

AT PRESENT the village maintains taxes collected from residents, approximately $800 a year, go to the township trustees who are not using the tax monies for the benefit of the village.

Penn maintains the Commissioners refused to grant the petition although the law enjoins them to do so.

Judge Ammer has set 10 a. m. Jan. 15, 1959 as the date the Board of County Commissioners must show cause as to why it has not honored the Orient petition.

The commissioners were unavailable for comment today.

Man, 73, Awarded Million Dollars From Estate of Kin He Never Met

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Charles C. Binkley, 73, woke up today with a cold, a headache and a million dollars.

How does it feel?

"Not much different, son," replied the twinkle-eyed grey-haired little man. "I haven't seen the money yet."

There have been plenty of suggestions on how he might spend the money. "I've had 50 or 60 offers already. Everything from business opportunities to proposals of marriage."

He chuckled.

"None of that foolishness for me," he said.

A Superior Court jury deliberated 3½ hours Wednesday and then awarded Binkley half of a fortune left by a half-sister he never met—or had ever heard of before about three years ago.

Mrs. Cora Nidever died in 1955 at the age of 85. She left an estate of $3,126,488 but no will was ever found.

Binkley, a retired glass blower from Montpelier, Ind., first heard of Mrs. Nidever when he was shown a clipping in an Indiana newspaper.

He began what he calls a "little investigation" that included a check of Civil War pension files.

Then he announced his father, a Union Army veteran named Joseph Binkley, had been the father of Mrs. Nidever. He said his father married Anna Miller Lewis in Indiana in 1880 after leaving Mrs. Nidever's mother Hester Binkley in Ohio in 1878.

Eight nieces and nephews of Mrs. Nidever contested Binkley's claim but the jury was unanimous in determining his right to half the fortune.

Noncommittal before the judgment was announced, Binkley was still silent about his fiscal plans today.

"I've lived in the same house in Montpelier for years," he said, "and there's no reason to move now.

"I don't need any clothes. I really don't have any plans. I don't expect to change my mode of living."

He has a daughter, Mrs. Glenoma Saunders, and five grandchildren in Weiser, Idaho.

His biggest interest is his horse, a 7-year-old pacer named Grand Ripple Mite. He races the horse at Indiana county fairs.

Hunter Admits Killing Pet Deer

PRESTON, Minn. (AP) — A Preston hunter pleaded guilty here Wednesday to charges stemming from the shooting of a rural family's three-legged pet deer. A second man accused in the same incident asked a jury trial.

James Simonson was fined $100 in Justice Court after pleading guilty to taking wildlife within 500 feet of a dwelling and livestock corral. The deer, which had lost one of its legs in a mower accident shortly after birth, was adopted as a pet by the Glen [illegible] family who farm near Preston.

The Hahns said Simonson and Garry Ruesink of Preston came to the farm on the opening day of the deer season and shot the animal despite pleas it was a pet.

The jury trial requested by Ruesink was set for Dec. 18.

Tape Recordings Tell Plans For Bombing Religious Cult

CHATSWORTH, Calif. (AP) — Tape recordings discovered near the dynamited wreckage of the Fountain of the World monastery point to two former cult members as the bombers, police say.

Nine persons, possibly 10, were killed in Wednesday's earth-jarring explosion. The two dynamiters are believed to have shared the fate of their victims.

Detectives said the blast apparently was touched off by Ralph Muller, 33, and Peter Kamenoff, 42, both of Joshua Tree, Calif.

Tape recordings made by the pair the night before the dynamiting indicate they were angry at the leader of the cult, Krishna Venta, and wanted to "bring him to justice," officers said.

The tapes, an hourlong recital of grievances against Krishna and the cult, also were described as farewell messages and detectives believe the men deliberately blew themselves up.

Muller once confided to a friend that it was his ambition to depose Venta and set up a cult of his own to replace the Fountain of the World.

The suicidal nature of the bombing was underscored by the fact the triggering device had to be manually operated, presumably by one of the men who carried the dynamite into the building in a zippered bag.

Venta, a barefooted, self-styled mystic, five of his flock and two children were killed in the explosion. One and perhaps two other bodies have also been recovered. The violent explosion and the fire that followed made identification nearly impossible.

Muller and Kamenoff were seen in an argument with Venta about an hour before the blast. Details of the quarrel were not known.

The tape recordings were found in Muller's pickup truck, parked near the cult's 29-acre colony in Box Canyon, about 30 miles northwest of Los Angeles.

After listening to them, officers pieced together this story:

Muller and Kamenoff left their desert home in Joshua Tree about 115 miles east of Los Angeles — picked up 20 sticks of dynamite and electric primers and drove to the cult area.

They registered at a motel in nearby Tarzana, set up their recorder and taped their last words.

"They said they wanted to bring Krishna Venta to what they termed justice," said Undersheriff B. B. Cummings of Ventura County. "Whether they meant religious or otherwise, I wouldn't attempt to say.

Officers said Kamenoff blamed Venta for separating him from his wife and child by persuading her to stay in the cult's Homer, Alaska, colony. Kamenoff also left a written farewell note, said detectvies.

Both men were construction workers. Kamenoff was a member of the cult from 1949 until 1957. Muller was a member off and on for several years.

X-RAY CRUISER — Pictured above is the Christmas Seal X-ray cruiser, which is in Ashville today and will be here tomorrow and Saturday. The cruiser, here annually for chest x-rays to discover possible tuberculosis sufferers, will be located on W. Main St., in front of G. C. Murphy Co.

X-ray Cruiser In County for Annual Survey

The Christmas Seal X-ray cruiser arrived in Pickaway County today for the annual survey of county residents for possible tuberculosis contamination.

The cruiser is in Ashville today. It is open from 10 a. m. until noon; 1 p. m. till 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9 p. m.

The hours for its Circleville stay are 10:30 a. m. until 1 p. m.; 2 till 5 p. m., and from 7 until 9:30 p. m. tomorrow and Saturday.

The public is invited to have a free chest X-ray during these hours. County Sanitarian, R. T. Blaney, today reminded all food handlers that they are required to have an annual tuberculosis checkup.

* * *

THE TUBERCULOSIS Assn., which sponsors the X-ray cruiser, is limiting the age to 15 years and over for the checkup, due to the difficulty of examining children's X-rays. Children who are cafeteria workers in the schools, will be given a checkup upon identification.

The money derived from the sale of Christmas seals is used for the annual X-ray cruiser's visit, plus rehabilitation of tuberculosis patients and health, education and research regarding this dreaded disease.

Evan P. Ford For Liquor Boss?

There was speculation today that Evan P. Ford might be a candidate for state liquor chief in the new DiSalle administration.

Ford, unsuccessful candidate for Pickaway County Common Pleas judge, has made no comment. DiSalle has insisted he has no applications for liquor director, although he has had several for assistant liquor chief, the man who does the buying for the liquor department.

Ford reportedly lives near Ashville, although he maintains a law office in Canal Winchester in Franklin County.

Union Barred From Holding Convention

U.S. Jurist Upholds Complaints Filed by Board of Monitors

WASHINGTON (AP) — A U.S. District Court judge today ordered the Teamsters Union to comply with reform orders of court-appointed monitors. The union was barred from holding a scheduled new convention next March.

Judge F. Dickinson Letts upheld complaints of a two-man majority of the three monitors that the union under President James R. Hoffa had failed to comply in good faith with reform recommendations.

Judge Letts, noting that the monitors are officers of the court and subject to the court's supervision, said they have all powers reasonably necessary to bring about a cleanup of the union.

"The Teamsters are obliged to comply with such orders of recommendation (by the monitors) and in good faith cooperate with the monitors," he said.

Letts, an 83-year-old former Republican congressman from Iowa, rejected a contention that the role of the monitors is merely advisory in these words:

"The court does not subscribe to the view that the duties and privileges of the monitors are merely advisory."

Letts said in his 12-page memorandum opinion that the Teamsters, without the knowledge and consent or approval of the court-appointed monitors had issued a call for a convention in the early part of March 1959.

He ordered Hoffa and the Teamsters to cancel all plans for the scheduled special convention a session Hoffa frankly arranged to seek to end the monitorship.

The judge further expanded powers of the monitors so that their approval must be secured before a new convention can be held. A convention date was also made subject to approval by the court.

The issues in the case before Letts go back to the Teamsters' 1957 convention at which Hoffa was elected president to succeed Dave Beck Sr. Beck and Hoffa both had been named in testimony before the Senate Rackets Committee that large sums of union funds had been mishandled.

A group of New York area rank-and-file Teamsters members brought suit here seeking to block Hoffa from taking over the union presidency on grounds he and Beck had rigged the election of delegates to insure Hoffa's victory.

That suit was compromised, with an agreement that Hoffa and other newly elected union officers could take over provisionally with the monitors named to police a union cleanup. Martin F. O'Donoghue, a lawyer who helped defend the Teamsters in early stages of the case, eventually became chief monitor.

After eight months of trying out the novel monitor arrangement, O'Donoghue and Godfrey P.

Orient Seeks Writ To Force Division from Scioto Twp.

The village of Orient today filed a writ of mandamus with the Pickaway County Common Pleas Court, asking Judge William Ammer to change the township lines of Scioto Twp. making Orient a separate political subdivision.

The petition was filed by Orient's attorney, Richard W. Penn, 114½ N. Court St. Penn named County Commissioners, Wayne Hines, chairman, Harley Mace and Clyde Michel as respondents.

The petition stated that the village, a municipal corporation within Scioto Twp., petitioned the Commissioners for a change in the township lines and was refused.

The village seeks to be excluded from Scioto Twp. This would give Orient the benefit of taxes collected from residents within the village.

* * *

AT PRESENT the village maintains taxes collected from residents, approximately $800 a year, go to the township trustees who are not using the tax monies for the benefit of the village.

Penn maintains the Commissioners refused to grant the petition although the law enjoins them to do so.

Judge Ammer has set 10 a. m. Jan. 15, 1959 as the date the Board of County Commissioners must show cause as to why it has not honored the Orient petition.

The commissioners were unavailable for comment today.

Man, 73, Awarded Million Dollars From Estate of Kin He Never Met

FRESNO, Calif. (AP)—Charles C. Binkley, 73, woke up today with a cold, a headache and a million dollars.

How does it feel?

"Not much different, son," replied the twinkle-eyed grey-haired little man. "I haven't seen the money yet."

There have been plenty of suggestions on how he might spend the money. "I've had 50 or 60 offers already. Everything from business opportunities to proposals of marriage."

He chuckled.

"None of that foolishness for me," he said.

A Superior Court jury deliberated 3½ hours Wednesday and then awarded Binkley half of a fortune left by a half-sister he never met—or had ever heard of before about three years ago.

Mrs. Cora Nidever died in 1955 at the age of 85. She left an estate of $3,126,488 but no will was ever found.

Binkley, a retired glass blower from Montpelier, Ind., first heard of Mrs. Nidever when he was shown a clipping in an Indiana newspaper.

He began what he calls a "little investigation" that included a check of Civil War pension files.

Then he announced his father, a Union Army veteran named Joseph Binkley, had been the father of Mrs. Nidever. He said his father married Anna Miller Lewis in Indiana in 1880 after leaving Mrs. Nidever's mother Hester Binkley in Ohio in 1878.

Eight nieces and nephews of Mrs. Nidever contested Binkley's claim but the jury was unanimous in determining his right to half the fortune.

Noncommittal before the judgment was announced, Binkley was still silent about his fiscal plans today.

"I've lived in the same house in Montpelier for years," he said, "and there's no reason to move now.

"I don't need any clothes. I really don't have any plans. I don't expect to change my mode of living."

He has a daughter, Mrs. Glenoma Saunders, and five grandchildren in Weiser, Idaho.

His biggest interest is his horse, a 7-year-old pacer named Grand Ripple Mite. He races the horse at Indiana county fairs.

Uncle Sam's Spending Just Goes On and On

Even as He Tries To Economize, He Piles Up Deficit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Spending has a way of happening, whether you like it or not. Ask Uncle Sam.

His budget is deeper in the red than ever before in peacetime. Yet even as he plans to economize, experts tell him he's spending more than his budget indicates.

For the third time since last summer, government economists have increased their estimates of future federal outlays for goods and services.

These are the estimates that give an advance clue to the government's contribution to national output. The fact that they have again been raised indicates federal spending will continue to add zip to the business recovery for at least the next six months.

Beyond next July the outlook is clouded because it will be several weeks before President Eisenhower sends Congress his new budget for the 1960 fiscal year that begins July 1. A lot depends too on what Congress does to that budget.

The odds are, however, that federal spending will remain a significant prop under the economy throughout 1959.

In the current fiscal year, the government is spending roughly 80 billion dollars. This compares with about 72 billions in the last bookkeeping year.

About two-thirds of this spending is for goods and services—missiles, trucks, office machines, buildings, pay for federal employes, etc. Money spent in this fashion moves directly into the economy.

Six months ago, government economists estimated that federal purchases of goods and services would reach an annual rate of 55 billion dollars by next June.

Now they say it probably will be closer to 56½ billions by June.

Even if Congress and the administration hold the line on spending in fiscal 1960, a mere continuation of the projected April-June level would produce an average of 56¼ billion dollars for calendar 1959.

That would mean an increase of about 3½ billion dollars over the 1958 average—enough to be a significant plus factor in the 1959 endar 1959.

That would mean an increase of about 3½ billion dollars over the 1958 average—enough to be a significant plus factor in the 1959 economy.

With a $12,200,000,000 deficit forecast for the current fiscal year, the new Congress will hear plenty of talk about economy in government.

As in 1958, however, the administration and Congress may discover that spending tends to happen faster than expected.

Teamsters Eye Civil Employes

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The Teamsters Union will start an organization drive early next year among the nation's 10 million city, county and state employes.

"I believe all Americans have the right to representation," Teamsters President James Hoffa told the union's directors Wednesday.

"We believe that if the AFL-CIO is so lax in its responsibility to organize the unorganized in this field who are seeking organization we should extend our help to assist them in getting better wages and working conditions."

The Teamsters were expelled by the AFL-CIO last year on corruption charges.

Virginia Con Admits Slaying Of Alabama Crusader in 1954

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A Virginia conviet has confessed to the 1954 slaying of vice crusader Albert Patterson, Gov. James E. Folsom's office said Wednesday.

"There appears to be a degree of truthfulness" in the signed statement of Calvin W. Pruitt, 28, who said he shot the attorney general-elect in a robbery attempt while a debt-ridden soldier stationed at Fort Benning, the governor said.

Folsom said he asked Atty. Gen. John Patterson to join in an investigation of the confession concerning the murder outside his father's Phenix City law office the night of June 18, 1954.

The Patterson slaying sparked the Phenix City vice cleanup which he had promised in winning the Democratic nomination for attorney general shortly before.

John Patterson was sent into the attorney general's office in his father's place and was elected governor this year. He takes office in January.

He was unavailable for comment.

Former Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert Fuller of Phenix City was convicted in the Patterson murder and is serving a life term.

Of the two others charged, former Solicitor Arch Ferrell was acquitted and ex-Atty. Gen. Si Garrett never stood trial. Garrett underwent a year of mental treatments in a Texas hospital after the killing.

Pruitt, a native of Hayeville, Ala., is serving Virginia sentences of 30 and 20 years. He was convicted last May of robbing two service stations.

Virginia prison authorities said he also was serving a life sentence, but the nature of this charge was not disclosed. However, records showed he was to have stood trial for the Feb. 6 slaying of a Lorton, Va., grocer. His wife in Alabama said he was convicted.

His wife, Velva, 24, said in Haleyville, he was serving terms totaling 170 years and "he just wants the chair." She said she believed he would prefer execution to spending his life in prison.

Uncle Sam's Spending Just Goes On and On

Even as He Tries To Economize, He Piles Up Deficit

WASHINGTON (AP)—Spending has a way of happening, whether you like it or not. Ask Uncle Sam.

His budget is deeper in the red than ever before in peacetime. Yet even as he plans to economize, experts tell him he's spending more than his budget indicates.

For the third time since last summer, government economists have increased their estimates of future federal outlays for goods and services.

These are the estimates that give an advance clue to the government's contribution to national output. The fact that they have again been raised indicates federal spending will continue to add zip to the business recovery for at least the next six months.

Beyond next July the outlook is clouded because it will be several weeks before President Eisenhower sends Congress his new budget for the 1960 fiscal year that begins July 1. A lot depends too on what Congress does to that budget.

The odds are, however, that federal spending will remain a significant prop under the economy throughout 1959.

In the current fiscal year, the government is spending roughly 80 billion dollars. This compares with about 72 billions in the last bookkeeping year.

About two-thirds of this spending is for goods and services—missiles, trucks, office machines, buildings, pay for federal employes, etc. Money spent in this fashion moves directly into the economy.

Six months ago, government economists estimated that federal purchases of goods and services would reach an annual rate of 55 billion dollars by next June.

Now they say it probably will be closer to 56½ billions by June.

Even if Congress and the administration hold the line on spending in fiscal 1960, a mere continuation of the projected April-June level would produce an average of 56¼ billion dollars for calendar 1959.

That would mean an increase of about 3½ billion dollars over the 1958 average—enough to be a significant plus factor in the 1959 endar 1959.

That would mean an increase of about 3½ billion dollars over the 1958 average—enough to be a significant plus factor in the 1959 economy.

With a $12,200,000,000 deficit forecast for the current fiscal year, the new Congress will hear plenty of talk about economy in government.

As in 1958, however, the administration and Congress may discover that spending tends to happen faster than expected.

"I believe all Americans have the right to representation," Teamsters President James Hoffa told the union's directors Wednesday.

"We believe that if the AFL-CIO is so lax in its responsibility to organize the unorganized in this field who are seeking organization we should extend our help to assist them in getting better wages and working conditions."

The Teamsters were expelled by the AFL-CIO last year on corruption charges.

Virginia Con Admits Slaying Of Alabama Crusader in 1954

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—A Virginia convict has confessed to the 1954 slaying of vice crusader Albert Patterson, Gov. James E. Folsom's office said Wednesday.

"There appears to be a degree of truthfulness" in the signed statement of Calvin W. Pruitt, 28, who said he shot the attorney general-elect in a robbery attempt while a debt-ridden soldier stationed at Fort Benning, the governor said.

Folsom said he asked Atty. Gen. John Patterson to join in an investigation of the confession concerning the murder outside his father's Phenix City law office the night of June 18, 1954.

The Patterson slaying sparked the Phenix City vice cleanup which he had promised in winning the Democratic nomination for attorney general shortly before.

John Patterson was sent into the attorney general's office in his father's place and was elected governor this year. He takes office in January.

He was unavailable for comment.

Former Chief Deputy Sheriff Albert Fuller of Phenix City was convicted in the Patterson murder and is serving a life term.

Of the two others charged, former Solicitor Arch Ferrell was acquitted and ex-Atty. Gen. Si Garrett never stood trial. Garrett underwent a year of mental treatments in a Texas hospital after the killing.

Pruitt, a native of Hayeville, Ala., is serving Virginia sentences of 30 and 20 years. He was convicted last May of robbing two service stations.

Virginia prison authorities said he also was serving a life sentence, but the nature of this charge was not disclosed. However, records showed he was to have stood trial for the Feb. 6 slaying of a Lorton, Va., grocer. His wife in Alabama said he was convicted.

His wife, Velva, 24, said in Haleyville, he was serving terms totaling 170 years and "he just wants the chair." She said she believed he would prefer execution to spending his life in prison.

Some Say School "Too Easy"

Scientists, some leading educators, businessmen and many parents say school is "too easy"—that there are too many ways for youngsters to slide by and that there is not enough challenge for bright pupils. Now come some teenagers who say the same.

Compact magazine, a high school pupils' publication, reports the reactions of American youngsters. The boys and girls say high school is a "snap" because:

There are too many elective courses; too much emphasis on extra-curricular activities; classes are geared to abilities of slow learners; students are given passing grades because schools are too crowded to hold them back; neither parents nor teachers demand enough; youngsters with high grades are sometimes considered "creeps."

Most interesting, they suggest the need for longer class sessions, more math, science and foreign languages and more stringent grading standards and stiffer college entrance requirements.

Next: Beach Party for Horses

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Simpson, known as the Elsa Maxwell of the pet world, has an odd professional ambition. She wants to throw a beach party for horses.

"A beach is an ideal place for such a party," she explained. "Horses love the surf, but most of them rarely get to visit a beach."

Throwing parties for animals is now a career for this pretty, blue-eyed blonde.

Miss Simpson, an employe of the Hess Bros. department store in Allentown, Pa., is the world's only pet party consultant — at least as far as she knows.

But Mary, a college graduate who majored in Far Eastern history, doesn't think of her job as odd. She has loved animals all her life, enjoys catering to them.

"People have been throwing parties for their pets for some time," she said, "but it has been on a rather haphazard basis."

Miss Simpson likes to go over the animal guest list in advance—just as a professional Washington social hostess might.

"Animals don't differ much from human beings at a party," she observed. "They catch the air of excitement. They have their showoffs and their wallflowers. You have to be sure the guests will get along.

"So far I haven't supervised a party where we mixed canaries, parakeets and cats and dogs. But we've had a number of cat and dog mixed parties that come off very well."

"The fact a dog chases a cat outside the home has no bearing on how they will get along at a party. After they get to know each other, they behave very well. Cats and monkeys also get along well at parties." she said.

Jealousy arises only when the guest pet of honor gets all the presents—or when two dogs want to show off at the same time.

"As at a children's party," cautioned Miss Simpson, "it is important that all the guests receive a favor. And it is better if the favors are identical. This keeps down envy."

Pets like to play games at parties just like people. Their favorite games, Mary said. are "bone scramble" and "hide the meatball."

What should you give a pet as a birthday party present?

"The best present for a bird is another bird," said Miss Simpson. "The best way to surprise a cat or dog is to get it another toy like the very first one it ever had. It will remember—and be pleased.

"You can also get it a copy of some object it likes around the house but has been forbidden to play with, such as a slipper, lady's hat, rubber, or braided rug. But it is essential that you first use the object yourself, so that the pet will associate it with you. Otherwise he won't care for it."

Berlin Shows U.S. Solidarity

By George Sokolsky

Since Nikita Khrushchev has taken over the management of the Soviet Universal State, he has faced the West with a series of crises, one following upon the other with breathless haste. He has demonstrated his skill not only by the speed with which he manages each crisis in different parts of the world but also by his ability to bring about diverse attitudes among Russia's opponents, thus engendering confusion in their ranks. Actually, Soviet Russia stays out of many of these situations, using her satellites.

This, thus far, is not appearing in the Berlin crisis. On this subject, Khrushchev finds the West united. In fact, he is faced by the dramatic success of de Gaulle in France and the even more dramatic co-operation of France and West Germany.

Whereas, Stalin, to a degree, found a means of stimulating a sharp division between the United States and Great Britain over the recognition of Red China, Khrushchev now finds the United States and Great Britain closer together than they have ever been.

Berlin presents a curious facade. West Berlin has grown back into a modern city, beautiful, prosperous, well-kept; East Berlin is a poverty-stricken, almost Orientalized Soviet city. The inhabitants are the same people, often members of the same families. In the instance of West Berlin, all the artistry and skill which made Germany so great have returned; in the case of East Berlin, these seem to have been lost in the repressions of Soviet life.

Berlin has then become a show-case, a show-case of contrasts. The result has been a constant and increasing migration of Germans from East to West Berlin.

Now, Khrushchev has given the United States, Great Britain and France a six months' ultimatum to get out of Berlin. It is true that he also offers to withdraw Russian troops but that is a hoax because what it would actually mean would be that Soviet troops would surround Berlin on three sides and that Sovietized troops would be inside Berlin, wearing East German uniforms and frightening the people into obedience to the Kremlin.

The hoax is too palpable and demonstrates a desperation, an urgency on the part of Khrushchev. After a series of victories, Khrushchev, who always talks too much, was defeated at Lebanon and Quemoy. It would seem that Khrushchev needs a dramatic victory.

Observing the nature of the 1958 election and not quite understanding the American form of government, he undoubtedly believed that if Eisenhower took a tough stance on the Berlin situation, Eisenhower would be less popular than he showed up to be in the election—as though such an election as we had in 1958 was a popularity contest.

It is always difficult for Europeans to understand American elections. Even British experts on the United States often fail to realize that an American President is very different from a British Prime Minister who can only exist as a member of a political party.

The American President, once in that office, no longer represents his party, but the entire American people. He has no Parliament to go to, but speaks in Congress through whatever leadership there is. In a sense, there is no real opposition party because when the President is of one party and the majority of Congress of another party, they must work together.

President Eisenhower now will have to depend upon Sen. Lyndon Johnson, Democratic leader in the Senate, and Speaker Sam Rayburn of the House of Representatives.

The Democrats will support the President on whatever stand we must take in the Berlin situation. There will be no opposition to protecting West Berlin from that quarter and the recent election in no manner affects this situation. We have only once carried our differences beyond our boundaries and that was when the Senate refused to ratify the Paris Treaty at the end of World War I. There is not likely to be such recalcitrance in the 86th Congress. Besides all the outstanding leaders of the Democratic Party, in or out of Congress, have already expressed themselves on the question of Berlin. They stand firm.

Khrushchev, like Hitler before him, does not grasp the essence of American freedom, which is that because we are free to differ and to express our differences we do not endanger our country because of these differences.

You can shoot only one black bear in a season in West Virginia and he must weigh more than 150 pounds. It's up to you, says Conservation Game Chief C. O. Handley, to determine how much the bear weighs before you shoot the critter.

Let Children Play Doctor

By Herman N. Bundesen, M. D.

Trying to think of something to get your youngster for Christmas? It's always quite a problem, I know, to come up with something that will please the youngsters and serve some educational, or at least useful, purpose at the same time.

Well, what about one of those "Play Doctor" sets? I am not advocating any particular kind, but I do think that the youngsters will get a kick out of a toy stethoscope, candy pills and the like.

Even more important is that by familiarizing themselves with a doctor's technique and instruments, they are preparing themselves for the big trip to see a real doctor. The first visit to a doctor or dentist is a trip into the unknown. And most children have a natural fear of the unknown.

Moreover, far too often some parents unknowingly instill fear in their children, particularly fear of doctors and dentists.

A simple passing remark by some adult about an unpleasant medical or dental experience may create a rather frightening image in a youngster's mind.

Permitting your child to play at being a doctor will help put the medical profession in its proper perspective with him.

Moreover, if you play doctor with him, the results probably will be even better. This simulates some of the experiences he will have during the actual visit.

As further preparation for that first visit, I suggest that you take your child along the next time you make an appointment for yourself.

Again, this helps serve as an introduction to the doctor or dentist and to his office and equipment.

However, I want to caution you against using force and threats to get the child to go either to the doctor's or dentist's office, unless, of course, it is an emergency. Using your size and strength to coerce a youngster only serves to stress his helplessness in the entire situation.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has consistently sidestepped saying whether he thinks racial integration in public schools is good or bad. He did say it should go slower.

He's been less consistent in deciding how to enforce the Supreme Court's 1955 order for ending genforced segregation. And he seems as vague today about handling Southern resistance as he was when the court first spoke.

This showed up again Wednesday at his news conference.

He said in the past he had taken an oath to enforce the laws. But as recently as Sept. 11, 1956, he seemed to think he himself couldn't do anything, that the job was up to U.S. marshals.

That day he said: "The federal government is not allowed to go into any state unless called upon by the governor who must show that he is unable with the means at his disposal to preserve order."

And on July 17, 1957, he was saying "I can't imagine any set of circumstances" that would ever induce him to send troops into a state to back up the court. He added that day: "I believe the common sense of America will never require it."

He reversed his field a couple of months later when Gov. Orval E. Faubus of Arkansas used National Guardsmen to block the court-ordered integration of Little Rock's Central High School.

Then Eisenhower sent in troops, not at Faubus' request but to his protests.

Eisenhower's main theme on achieving integration is that it is a slow process. He has talked of patience, of educating people on the issues. He has said laws can't change the hearts or prejudices of people.

But Wednesday he showed impatience with people who don't obey the law. He was asked how he feels about the refusal of Alabama officials to produce voting records demanded by the government's Commission on Civil Rights.

The commission, created by act of Congress, is investigating complaints of Alabama Negroes that state authorities have frustrated their attemps o register and vote.

Eisenhower said: "Well, I don't feel very well about it . . . I think this is a rather sad sort of thing, because all the way around we are running into this refusal of complying with the basic laws of the land, laws that have been upheld by our courts as legal and proper."

He called the performance of the Alabama officials "reprehensible."

But does he have any plans himself for handling Southern resistance, such as asking Congress for new laws? He was asked the question: "Do you favor new legislation to bring about the enforcement of integration?"

Eisenhower seemed to have no plans at all, beyond saying he thought the commission should be allowed more time to do the job of inquiring into civil rights violations. The commission's two-year term ends next year.

He said: "Now, with respect to any new laws which you are talking about in the whole field of civil rights, I simply will say this: This is something that is studied all the time."

Just where will all the studying lead to? Eisenhower said, "I don't know."

But Wednesday's anger at those who don't comply with the laws was not the same as the attitude he expressed last Aug. 8 when he said: "Mere laws will never solve this problem."

Italy is about to stage an eating contest between a team of skinny guys and a squad of fat fellows. From all indications it should be a humdinger of a gastronomic World Series.

The Italian foodarama will be staged Dec. 13 which could be bad luck for any contestant with a weak digestion.

As a warmup the gallant gourmands, we're informed will have to knock off three bowls of tortellini in 45 minutes. Gulp!

For the information of those who came in late, tortellini is plural for totellino which means a little tortello which, in turn, is a pasta stuffed wih meat, bread, etc, etc., etc. Right about here we'd toss in our napkin.

Contestants in the tortellini tournament will do their duelling with spoon and fork. Which means there'll be plenty of fancy scooping and stabbing.

At a given signal, we're told, the forks will begin to fly and the spoons to splash—and son't mind any gravy stains!

The championship match will be held in the city of Bologna—which we'd say is a perfect site for any contest involving food.

Some Say School "Too Easy"

Scientists, some leading educators, businessmen and many parents say school is "too easy"—that there are too many ways for youngsters to slide by and that there is not enough challenge for bright pupils. Now come some teenagers who say the same.

Compact magazine, a high school pupils' publication, reports the reactions of American youngsters. The boys and girls say high school is a "snap" because:

There are too many elective courses; too much emphasis on extra-curricular activities; classes are geared to abilities of slow learners; students are given passing grades because schools are too crowded to hold them back; neither parents nor teachers demand enough; youngsters with high grades are sometimes considered "creeps."

Most interesting, they suggest the need for longer class sessions, more math, science and foreign languages and more stringent grading standards and stiffer college entrance requirements.

Next: Beach Party for Horses

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—Mary Simpson, known as the Elsa Maxwell of the pet world, has an odd professional ambition. She wants to throw a beach party for horses.

"A beach is an ideal place for such a party," she explained. "Horses love the surf, but most of them rarely get to visit a beach."

Throwing parties for animals is now a career for this pretty, blue-eyed blonde.

Miss Simpson, an employe of the Hess Bros. department store in Allentown, Pa., is the world's only pet party consultant — at least as far as she knows.

But Mary, a college graduate who majored in Far Eastern history, doesn't think of her job as odd. She has loved animals all her life, enjoys catering to them.

"People have been throwing parties for their pets for some time," she said, "but it has been on a rather haphazard basis."

Miss Simpson likes to go over the animal guest list in advance—just as a professional Washington social hostess might.

"Animals don't differ much from human beings at a party," she observed. "They catch the air of excitement. They have their showoffs and their wallflowers. You have to be sure the guests will get along.

"So far I haven't supervised a party where we mixed canaries, parakeets and cats and dogs. But we've had a number of cat and dog mixed parties that come off very well."

"The fact a dog chases a cat outside the home has no bearing on how they will get along at a party. After they get to know each other, they behave very well. Cats and monkeys also get along well at parties," she said.

Jealousy arises only when the guest pet of honor gets all the presents—or when two dogs want to show off at the same time.

"As at a children's party," cautioned Miss Simpson, "it is important that all the guests receive a favor. And it is better if the favors are identical. This keeps down envy."

Pets like to play games at parties just like people. Their favorite games, Mary said, are "bone scramble" and "hide the meatball."

What should you give a pet as a birthday party present?

"The best present for a bird is another bird," said Miss Simpson. "The best way to surprise a cat or dog is to get it another toy like the very first one it ever had. It will remember—and be pleased.

"You can also get it a copy of some object it likes around the house but has been forbidden to play with, such as a slipper, lady's hat, rubber, or braided rug. But it is essential that you first use the object yourself, so that the pet will associate it with you. Otherwise he won't care for it."

Berlin Shows U.S. Solidarity

By George Sokolsky

Since Nikita Khrushchev has taken over the management of the Soviet Universal State, he has faced the West with a series of crises, one following upon the other with breathless haste. He has demonstrated his skill not only by the speed with which he manages each crisis in different parts of the world but also by his ability to bring about diverse attitudes among Russia's opponents, thus engendering confusion in their ranks. Actually, Soviet Russia stays out of many of these situations, using her satellites.

This, thus far, is not appearing in the Berlin crisis. On this subject, Khrushchev finds the West united. In fact, he is faced by the dramatic success of de Gaulle in France and the even more dramatic co-operation of France and West Germany.

Santa and the ELF BOY

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

The weeping Charlotte told of the Hangdog Hag's curse.

SYNOPSIS: Esteban climbed into Charlotte's room where she told him her father's plan to release a powerful gas on Christmas Day which will destroy all fairies— Santa Claus, the tooth fairies, the Queen Fairy. "Or maybe even me!" cries Esteban.

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE SLEEPING WOMAN

"But, why? asked Esteban. "Why should your father want to destroy all fairies?"

Charlotte took the candle from her bed table. "Follow me," she whispered.

Softly she opened the door. Esteban, hardly daring to breathe, tiptoed behind her. Suddenly he stopped in terror, certain he saw Professor Szpilki stealing after them. But it was only himself shadowed on the wall.

Down the endless corridor and up three flights of stairs they went until at last they came to a gilded door. Charlotte opened the door and led Esteban into a large white bedroom.

In the center of the room was an enormous white bed and in the bed lay the most beautiful woman Esteban had ever seen.

"W-who is she?" he gasped.

"My mother," said Charlotte. Tears came into her eyes. "She will never wake again."

"But why not?" cried Esteban.

"She was put under a spell by the Hangdog Hag."

"The Hangdog Hag! Why, that's the witch of Hangdog who despises all beautiful women!"

Charlotte nodded. "My mother was the most beautiful woman in the whole world. The Hangdog Hag came one night and put her to sleep and said she would never wake up. Then the Hag vanished and has never been seen again."

"How awful!" cried Esteban. "When my father saw what happened, he swore he would find the Hag and put an end to her. But though he searched and searched he never could find her. Finally he shut himself up in his laboratory and worked for weeks and weeks until he had made a mysterious gas. It is so powerful it will spread instantly over the earth and suffocate the Hangdog Hag wherever she is."

"That's good!" exclaimed Esteban.

"But don't you see?" protested Charlotte. "It will destroy not just the Hag but all fairy folk everywhere!"

Esteban thought of the Queen Fairy and Santa Claus and the tooth fairies and the Sandman and all his other dear friends.

"They can't die!" he cried. "What would everyone do without them? What would it be like for the world if there were no Santa?"

"I know, I know!" wept Charlotte. "What shall we do?"

"There's only one thing to do," said Esteban. "We must get that bottle of gas! Where does he keep it?"

"On a table in his workroom. I saw it there only last night when he came out of the room as I was passing."

"We'll get it," said Esteban.

He took Charlotte's hand and turned from the bed. Then his heart dropped and he fell back in horror for the Professor himself stood in the door.

The professor shook his head sadly. "Ah, my boy, you should never have come back for I have heard all you said and now I must imprison you and Charlotte until my task is done."

Charlotte threw herself on him. "No, no father! Don't do it, please!"

"I must," said the professor gravely. "You and the boy will get in my way and nothing must stop me from setting loose my gas on Christmas Day."

Labor Party Is Seen as Last Resort

NEW YORK (AP) — George Meany says the American labor movement will form its own political party "if we have to do that to lick the people who want to drag us back to the past."

The AFL-CIO president said that organized labor would form a third political party with reluctance. But, he declared:

"Labor is going to be just as political as it has to be to win its objectives."

Meany's remarks were greeted enthusiastically by the 2,842 delegates at a constitutional convention of the newly merged New York State AFL-CIO.

"If labor has to go further than it can through its Committee on Political Education to make America a better place in which to work and live, to make America the leader of the democracies of the world, we will take the next step if it is forced upon us," Meany said.

He said he would prefer to have labor involved only with employer relations.

As for businessmen taking a greater part in politics, Meany asserted:

"My advice to the business community, and I mean this seriously: They had better just send their money and stay the hell out themselves.

"You see, they've got the money but we've got the people. And in a contest between money and people, there is no doubt of the result."

Weeky Food Review

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Various cuts of pork will be featured in the nations supermarkets and neighborhood grocery stores this weekend as a preview of 1959.

Bacon receives the special treatment in a good number of stores, while other pork bargains will be offered in shoulder roasts, picnic hams and pork loins. Pork prices are expected to decrease next year and appear lower already.

Expectations of pork bargains are based on a fall pig crop well above last year, which should mean substantially increased hog marketings next spring.

A few stores will offer special prices on beef roasts and steaks. Scattered offerings of leg of lamb and frying chickens also are on tap.

Butter prices shaded a penny or so higher in a few sections this week, but egg prices again are down two to six cents a dozen over a wide area. It's largely a seasonal swing.

Potatoes again head the bargain list of fresh vegetables. Other outstanding buys are mushrooms, endive, escarole, turnips, beets, carrots and radishes. Good buys are available in lettuce, celery, cucumbers, eggplant, yellow onions, sweet potatoes, cabbage, spinach and sweet corn.

Green squash, tomatoes, peppers and broccoli are a fair buy, produce men say. Oranges and grapefruit are on the bargain list. Good fruit buys also include northwest pears, California grapes, Florida limes and coconuts from the Dominican Republic and Puerto Rico.

Hartman, Wallace At School Meeting

Superintendent George A. Hartman and State Representative Ed Wallace attended a meeting of the Southeastern Ohio City and Exempted Village Superintendents at Ohio University yesterday.

At the October meeting at Lake Hope the association unanimously agreed that each member should invite and bring as his guests as many state legislators as possible to this December meeting.

On the agenda were the discussion of pertinent legislative proposals with respect to public education and the election of officers for 1959.

Pickaway Soph Cherry Pie Champ

Sharon Sharrett, a sophomore at Pickaway Township School, was chosen a winner in the district cherry pie baking contest held in Columbus last Saturday.

Sharon will compete in the state contest in Toledo, Jan. 16 and 17. The electric company is sponsoring the contest in conjunction with National Cherry Packers Assn.

Red Security Setup May Be Changing

MOSCOW (AP)—Diplomatic observers in Moscow think the removal of Soviet Police Chief Ivan A. Serov may be a move toward decentralizing the security system.

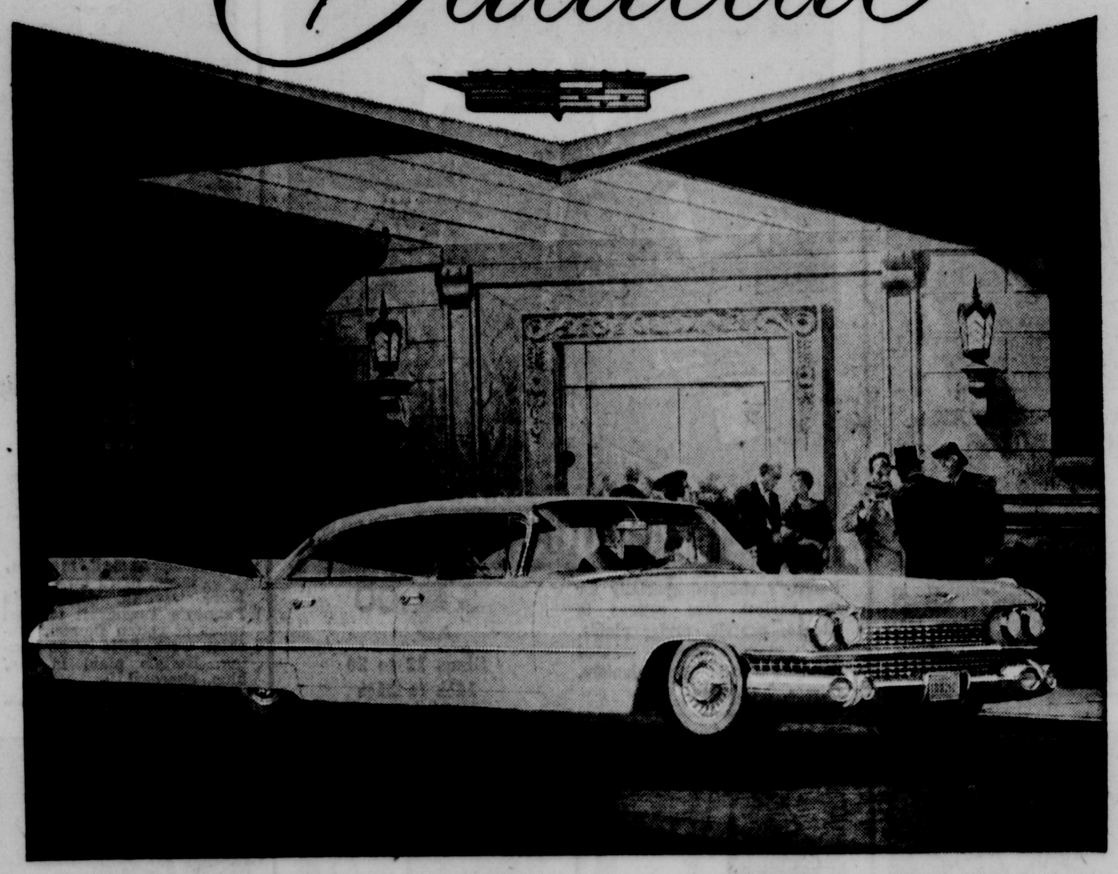

This view was widely held today among ambassadors who were surprised by the removal announcement. The brief notice in major newspapers Monday said Gen. Serov was being reassigned but did not say where, or name his successor.

Most envoys felt that no new job could possibly carry the power which Serov had wielded for the last 4½ years.

Cadillac

Unchallenged in the World's Affections!

If it could be said of any product of American craftsmanship that it is known and loved throughout the world—then it could surely be said of the Cadillac car.

In fact, it is unlikely that, in all the recorded history of commerce, another manufactured product has ever etched itself so deeply in the public affection.

And we feel confident that the beautiful motor car that bears the Cadillac name for 1959 will deepen this sentiment to a still greater degree.

For this newest Cadillac creation is far finer in all the things that have made Cadillac so worthy of the world's respect and admiration.

Its distinctive beauty, for example, is infinitely more graceful and enchanting—with a majesty of line and a fineness of form never before witnessed on the world's highways.

Its celebrated Fleetwood luxury will win international favor as never before—with appointments and fabrics that are unbelievably beautiful.

And its performance will quickly alter the world's concept of how an automobile should drive and handle—with a smoothness, an alertness, and an ease of control that put a new measure of magic into every mile it travels.

To make that Cadillac of your dreams come true investigate the virtues of the Cadillac without delay.

In fact, the car's unprecedented acceptance has made it doubly important that you place your order at the earliest possible moment.

Your dealer will be waiting to welcome you.

Ashville News Report

By Mrs. Art Deal Jr.

The Ashville Civic Club annual Christmas Tea was held Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Wade Shreve. The house was beautifully decorated throughout, with Christmas decorations and candles.

The meeting opened with the singing of Christmas carols. Mrs. Tom Purcell led the devotions.

A Christmas skit was presented by Mrs. Felix Dore', Mrs. Purcell, Mrs. Robert Bausum, Mrs. William Snyder, Mrs. Warren Bastian, Mrs. Glenn Rogers, Miss Lola Shreve, Mrs. Charles Helser, Mrs. Roger Hedges, Marty Dore', Saundra Rife, Katheryn Gardner, Joy Trone and Nancy Featheringham. They showed, through their skit, the true meaning of Christmas.

Mrs. Donald Flierl, president, read a letter asking that the group send representatives to a special meeting Jan. 14, at Circleville to be held in the Memorial Hall, to help plan a special celebration of the 150th Anniversary of Pickaway County to be held in 1960. Mrs. Flierl appointed Mrs. Frank Morrison and Miss Nell Oesterle to represent the club at this meeting.

A free will offering was taken with all proceeds going for Christmas decorations for Chillicothe Veterans Hospital and any needy organization or family that might need assistance in the community during the holidays.

Mrs. Frank Hudson asked that those having old jewelry gift wrap each piece and bring it to her home where she will see that it is distributed to the State Hospital.

Mrs. William Trimble was accepted as a new member and Mrs. Thomas Keal was introduced as a guest.

REFRESHMENTS were served from a decorated table to 32 members and guests. Miss Shreve entertained during the evening with carols played on her chord organ. The following members assisted Mrs. Shreve: Mrs. Snyder, Mrs. Fred Engle, and Mrs. James Irwin.

Since the regular meeting night for January falls on New Year's Day, it will be held Jan. 8 in the study hall at the school. A representative from the telephone company will speak with the group.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Bowers attended the "Messiah" held in Mershon Auditorium on the Ohio State University campus Sunday afternoon. Their daughter, Mary Jo, sang in the chorus. They were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kraft, Columbus, for dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. David McCain of 321 Randolph St., will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Monday.

On Sunday their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McCain of South Bloomfield, will hold open house in their home from 2 to 5 p. m. for their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. McCain have eight children, 15 grandchildren and a great grandchild.

Also celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary will be Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lindsey with open house at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Elwood Morrison, on Sunday, Dec. 21 from 2 until 5 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey were married on Dec. 17, 1908 in Columbus. They have two daughters, Mrs. Morrison and Mrs. S. L. Jones, Albany, Ga., and four grandchildren.

THE ASHVILLE - HARRISON Fire Dept. and Mayor Bozman wish to thank everyone who responded so generously with food and clothing for the Harley Baldwin family who were burned out of their home Saturday. The Baldwins were farm laborers on Mrs. P. G. Johnson's farm on Route 23 north of South Bloomfield. The home was completely destroyed with only a television set and the clothes they had on saved. The Baldwins have six children, ranging in ages from 8 to 18, and are now staying with relatives in Columbus until a home can be found for them.

The Fellowship Class of the Ashville Methodist Church will meet in the church at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday Dec. 17, for a family pot-luck dinner. The committee will furnish dessert. Children are asked to bring a gift for exchange and the grownups will decorate the Christmas tree in the sanctuary.

This Thursday evening the Ladies Aid of the Evangelical United Brethren Church will hold its annual Family Night Pot-Luck Supper for the entire church with serving beginning at 6:30 p. m. A program is being planned.

The Sisterhood of the E.U.B. Church will meet Friday, Dec. 19, to prepare Christmas baskets for the shut-ins and aged. Those wishing to donate cookies, fruit or candy are asked to bring them to the church kitchen by noon Dec. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Deal, Jr. had as dinner guests Saturday evening Dr. and Mrs. Richard Messick of Columbus, Dr. and Mrs. John Bowers and Mr. and Mrs. Romaine Wilson of Circleville.

The Ashville PTA will meet at the school auditorium. A Christmas Cantata entitled "Song of Christmas" will be presented by the high school chorus under the direction of Everett Mehrley. Elmer Blackmer, guest organist, will accompany the students. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Richard Peters and her committee.

The Ashville Community Post 730 of the American Legion will have its anual sale of Christmas trees at the Legion home in Ashville starting Saturday. Both long and short needle trees will be available.

The Legion and Auxiliary will hold their annual Christmas Party in the K of P Hall at 6:30 p. m. Dec. 17, with a covered dish dinner, for their families. Santa Claus is to visit with the children.

THE BASTIAN Funeral Home made the following ambulance runs this past week: Wednesday, Dec. 3 moved Mrs. Brookshire of 32 Station St., to White Cross Hospital; Thursday, Dec. 4 brought Howard Miller of Darbyville home from White Cross; Friday, Dec. 5 Mrs. Clyde Brinker was returned to her home from Dr. Schiff's office after suffering a broken ankle; Saturday, Dec. 6 returned Mrs. Dale Logsdon, Route 2, Ashville home from Mercy; and Sunday, Dec. 7 took Mrs. Marcel Whipple, Rural Route, Ashville to Mercy and Emma Chaffin of Ashville to White Cross and returned Floyd McManes, Route 2, Ashville home from Mercy.

The Christmas Seal X-Ray Cruiser will be in Ashville Business District Thursday, December 11 from 10 a. m. to 12 noon; 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. and 7 p. m. to 9 p. m.

The public is invited to have a free chest X-Ray during these hours. All food handlers are required to have an annual chest X-Ray.

X-Rays will not be given children under 15 unless the children are cafeteria workers in the schools. These children will be given X-Ray upon identification.

A gay Christmas program is being planned for the occasion.

Each member is asked to bring a suitable gift, Christmas wrapped to be given to the Columbus State School for Mentally Retarded, state age and whether for boy or girl, on the package. Also please bring sales tax stamps. Members may bring a guest to the festive party.

Chairman of the hostesses will be Mrs. Robert Knode; assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Isaac Millar, Mrs. Stanley Beckett, Mrs. Elmer Siegle, Mrs. Ilo Creamer, Mrs. Everett Eakin, Mrs. Herbert E. Louis, Mrs. Paul Peters, Mrs. Wayne Hines, Mrs. Orlan Hines, Mrs. Clarence Maxson, Miss Lucille Blake, Mrs. Vause Blake and Mrs. H. O. Caldwell.

MEMBERS of the American Legion Auxiliary spent two days last week helping in the Christmas Gift Shop at Chillicothe Veterans Hospital.

The gift shop is made possible by gifts and money donated by the Legion Auxiliaries. The ladies donate their time in helping the veterans to select gifts for their families and loved ones and then gift wrapping and mailing them.

Those helping from Ashville were Mrs. Russell Costlow, Mrs. Eugene Wilson, Mrs. Emerson Dum, Mrs. Bud Glitt and Mrs. Willard Foreman.

6 School Boys Ousted for Odd Haircuts

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP)—Six male students wearing ducktail haircuts and tight-fitting trousers—defying a school order to dress properly—were sent home from Ashtabula High School yesterday.

Principal Maurice E. Rowley said most of the 20 students who turned up Tuesday with the unconventional hair and dress styles conformed today.

"The six boys who weren't dressed properly were sent home," Rowley said.

"I want to point out that 99 per cent of our students are good school citizens and they are upset by the actions of the others."

Rowley gave a few other students who, he said, couldn't afford to buy new trousers, more time to dress properly. Several boys are still wearing tight, low-hung blue jeans.

"They came with their parents this morning and explained the situation. We want to be sensible about it and we gave them more time," Rowley explained.

Girls who were warned against wearing slacks or pin curlers to school have conformed and have presented no problem, Rowley said.

The school has 1,150 students. The board of education is supporting Rowley, who feels off-beat styles have an adverse effect on students' progress.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: Do you have any words of wisdom for worried, frustrated, exhausted parents of a daughter who insists upon marrying a man of another faith?

All our protests are met with; "But he is such a wonderful young man. We know we won't be welcomed everywhere, but we will choose our environment..." etc.

I have known many wonderful people of Dave's faith; and I respect them. But I don't want him in our family, any more than his poor mother will want him to marry our Judy. As yet his mother, poor dear, hasn't been told of their intentions.

They plan to be married by a judge, not by a churchman; and they say their children (if any) will not be reared in either faith (his or hers). So their marriage, instead of being a step towards heaven, will have two strikes against it.

Normally, Judy is intelligent, sensitive, sweet, with a good sense of humor; but at present it seems we have lost her. Where have we failed our child?

F.S.

DEAR F.S.: In 1957, sociologist James H. S. Bossard and his assistant, Eleanor Stoker Boll, published a book titled "One Marriage: Two Faiths" (Ronald Press, New York) which tells the story of what differences in religious faith really mean to a marriage and a home.

Spokesmen for both the Protestant and Catholic clergy, also leaders of thought in other fields, warmly praise the usefulness and sympathetic objectivity of this report.

"Perhaps its chief contribution" says one critic, "lies in its carefully documented reminder that marriage involves living with a person, not merely loving him."

The authors report that about one-half of all church members in this nation marry outside their respective faiths. Their research indicates that most persons who contemplate mixed marriage are young—"which means that they consider only the first stages of the family cycle: that is, they think (only) in terms of husband-wife relations."

Because the inevitable and permanent concerns of marriage seem very remote to young lovers, the foresighted counsel of older persons is much to be valued, these authorities say.

Sociologists Brossard and Boll emphasize that whatever the possibilities of happiness in mixed marriages, the path to them must be always through approaches of understanding, compromise, tolerance and mutual respect. They remind us that happiness is not an accident nor a gift but an achievement—a result obtained by effort: intelligent, cooperative effort.

Let's hope that this book contributes to renewed devotion and cooperation in your household, between the older and younger generations. You can't help your daughter by fighting her blindly.

'Chilly' Bar Patrons Prove To Be Robbers

RAVENNA, Ohio (AP)—One of nine persons sitting in the Moose Club bar commented, "Gee, it really must be getting cold out. Look at those two who just came in with their faces covered up." One of the newcomers levelled a sawed-off shotgun Tuesday at bartender Bob Fleshman while the other gathered $700 from the club till and the customers. The Robbers forced their victims to lie down and then fled.

FARM

Birdsfoot Trefoil Top Lamb Pasture

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

Figuring a wholesale price of 25 cents a pound, more than $100 worth of lamb has been produced per acre on birdsfoot trefoil pasture at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

In a comparison of birdsfoot trefoil-bluegrass pasture with Ladino clover-bluegrass, Ladino produced more lamb gain one year, but trefoil mixture produced more gain in the next two years.

The trefoil was highly productive even the first year after seeding. Average gains for three years on this legume were 475, 448 and 461 pounds.

So tough is trefoil that drought did not reduce the stand. It's worst enemy is over-grazing. This is why rotational grazing is preferred to continuous grazing. Gains were better on rotationally pastured trefoil-bluegrass by an average of 47 pounds in the three-year test period.

Lambs seemed to prefer trefoil over bluegrass. They kept the trefoil eaten close to the ground. Use was made of the pastures as long as six months with grazing beginning as early as April and ending as late as October.

• • •

THE TREFOIL stand was kept in healthy condition by dividing pastures into three sections and moving lambs from one part to another. The wethers were left in one section about two weeks then switched to another, giving each division four weeks in which to make a comeback. A longer period of rest, perhaps five or six weeks, would favor the stand and increase feed production.

Heavy lamb meat production from trefoil-bluegrass is possible only if good stands are obtained, the pastures are well fertilized and they are grazed by high quality animals capable of making efficient use of feed.

Judge Gets Ultimatum

High Court Ponders Disbarment Dispute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Municipal Judge Frank R. Franko of Youngstown has until Jan. 1 to reply to the Ohio Supreme Court in a suit brought to oust him from the bench. If he doesn't answer by then, the court said it will issue an order to remove him as judge.

Franko was suspended as an attorney for unethical practices. Atty. Gen. William Saxbe then brought a quo warranto action—a proceeding to determine a person's right to remain in office—in an effort to have Franko ousted as judge.

Franko filed an objection to Saxbe's suit, contending that his suspension as attorney did not require him to leave the bench.

The Supreme Court Wednesday overruled the objection and set the deadline for an answer.

"In default of an answer by Jan. 1, 1959," the court warned, "a judgment of ouster will be entered."

Judges are required by law to maintain their status as members of the legal profession, the court noted, and said indefinite suspension is grounds for removal.

In other cases, the Supreme Court:

Agreed to review an order by Fayette County Appellate Court for reinstatment of a $10,000 verdict in favor of Miss Virginia A. Thompson against Morton S. Titus, 63, for malicious assault. Miss Thompson charged Titus, her neighbor in Washington Court House, struck her after an argument. A common pleas jury awarded her $10,000 but that court ordered a new trial after she refused to accept a $7,500 reduction. The Appellate Court also ordered the new trial motion overruled.

Admitted for review Clinton County decisions holding that a $3,000 bequest in the will of the late Mrs. Ella E. Turner, Martinsville, could not go to her granddaughter, Mary Ann Turner, because she attempted unsuccessfully to contest the will. Lower courts held that Verna M. Winter, a sister of Mrs. Turner, is entitled to the money under provisions of the will, against any contest.

Cigarette Gets Blame For Toledoan's Death

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A cigarette was blamed for the fire Wednesday night which burned to death Harry J. Reeves, 68. District Fire Chief Oscar Selz said Reeves apparently fell asleep in a living room chair and dropped a lighted cigarette. Damage to the house, where Reeves lived alone, was estimated at $1,500.

OSU Plans Short Course For Farmers

Young men who desire practical instruction in such areas as livestock feeding, livestock breeding, engineering, pasture and forage crops, fertility and fertilizers, poultry and pest control may want to enroll in this short course.

The date of the course is Jan. 5, 1959, through Feb. 27, 1959.

The prospective student must be a high school graduate or have satisfactory work experience and be at least 19 years of age.

Practical farm experience before enrolling in the course is highly desirable, but not absolutely necessary.

Applications for admission should be mailed well in advance of the opening date. This will aid the college in making advance arrangements.

The prospective short course student who is eligible for the program should fill out an application for admission and mail it as soon as possible to the dean in charge of short courses.

Young farmers who are interested should contact the Pickaway County Extension Office for additional information.

Dairy Meet Planned

County Dairy farmers are invited to attend a meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the Williamsport Parish Hall. Dr. William Tyznik, of the Ohio State University Department of Animal Science, will speak.

Integration on Farm

Vertical integration on the farm will be the subject of a discussion at 8 p. m. Tuesday at Scioto Twp. School. Wallace Barr, extension economist from Ohio State University, will lead the meeting.

Thomas Jefferson was the first president to be inaugurated in Washington, D. C.

1959 Cattle Prices To Stay High, Hogs Head Downward

Prices which farmers receive for their meat animals in the year ahead will depend largely on production rates, according to L. H. Barnes, Ohio State University Extension Economist.

Barnes expects cattle prices to stay fairly high, hog prices to sag, and lamb prices to remain steady or drop slightly. The economist returned recently from Washington where he attended the 36th annual Agricultural Outlook conference.

Speakers at the conference, Barnes recalls, suggested that any increase in cattle numbers sets the stage for future price declines and that a decline is probable sometime in the early 1960's. An expansion boom such as occurred in 1950-52 would lead to a price collapse. However, a moderate rate of expansion in breeding stock and a strong demand for feeder cattle will tend to hold the rate of expansion within reasonable bounds.

Lower hog prices are due soon in the wake of increased production. They are expected to sag during the winter, and 1959 price levels generally will be lower. How low hog prices will be a year from now, Barnes says, will depend on the extent of increases in next spring's farrowings. Present large supplies and low cost of feed make it almost certain that substantial increases in production are in prospect.

Sheep production also is increasing, Barnes points out. Prices will be influenced by the general level of livestock prices. Some price decrease can be expected in the future, although a relatively small decline is expceed in 1959.

4-H CLUB NEWS

The 1959 4-H Club year will start soon, at least for all club members planning to exhibit steers at any 4-H exhibit including the county fair. Any youth 10-20 years of age who wishes to exhibit steers must notify the County Extension Agent, 4-H before January 1. This can be done by calling or writing the Agriculture Extension Office or coming to the basement of the Post Office.

All members are limited to two steers for exhibit at the Pickaway County fair. We hope you will have a steer next year.

The 4-H Junior Leadership Club has postponed its annual banquet from December until March. No date could be obtained in December due to conflicts with basketball games.

4-H members who are interested in steers but are short on money should try to attend a finance meeting at 8 p. m. December 17, in the Agriculture Exensiton Office.

Earl Palm will be presen to discuss with you and your parents the financing of steers for a 4-H club project. This meeting was set up by the pen of five feeder calf project committee in hopes that you might become more interested in this project.

FARM

Birdsfoot Trefoil Top Lamb Pasture

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent, Agriculture

Figuring a wholesale price of 25 cents a pound, more than $100 worth of lamb has been produced per acre on birdsfoot trefoil pasture at the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station.

In a comparison of birdsfoot trefoil-bluegrass pasture with Ladino clover-bluegrass, Ladino produced more lamb gain one year, but trefoil mixture produced more gain in the next two years.

The trefoil was highly productive even the first year after seeding. Average gains for three years on this legume were 475, 448 and 461 pounds.

So tough is trefoil that drought did not reduce the stand. It's worst enemy is over-grazing. This is why rotational grazing is preferred to continuous grazing. Gains were better on rotationally pastured trefoil-bluegrass by an average of 47 pounds in the three-year test period.

Lambs seemed to prefer trefoil over bluegrass. They kept the trefoil eaten close to the ground. Use was made of the pastures as long as six months with grazing beginning as early as April and ending as late as October.

• • •

THE TREFOIL stand was kept in healthy condition by dividing pastures into three sections and moving lambs from one part to another. The wethers were left in one section about two weeks then switched to another, giving each division four weeks in which to make a comeback. A longer period of rest, perhaps five or six weeks, would favor the stand and increase feed production.

Heavy lamb meat production from trefoil-bluegrass is possible only if good stands are obtained, the pastures are well fertilized and they are grazed by high quality animals capable of making efficient use of feed.

Judge Gets Ultimatum

High Court Ponders Disbarment Dispute

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Municipal Judge Frank R. Franko of Youngstown has until Jan. 1 to reply to the Ohio Supreme Court in a suit brought to oust him from the bench. If he doesn't answer by then, the court said it will issue an order to remove him as judge.

Franko was suspended as an attorney for unethical practices. Atty. Gen. William Saxbe then brought a quo warranto action—a proceeding to determine a person's right to remain in office—in an effort to have Franko ousted as judge.

Franko filed an objection to Saxbe's suit, contending that his suspension as attorney did not require him to leave the bench.

The Supreme Court Wednesday overruled the objection and set the deadline for an answer.

"In default of an answer by Jan. 1, 1959," the court warned, "a judgment of ouster will be entered."

Judges are required by law to maintain their status as members of the legal profession, the court noted, and said indefinite suspension is grounds for removal.

In other cases, the Supreme Court:

Agreed to review an order by Fayette County Appellate Court for reinstatment of a $10,000 verdict in favor of Miss Virginia A. Thompson against Morton S. Titus, 63, for malicious assault. Miss Thompson charged Titus, her neighbor in Washington Court House, struck her after an argument. A common pleas jury awarded her $10,000 but that court ordered a new trial after she refused to accept a $7,500 reduction. The Appellate Court also ordered the new trial motion overruled.

Admitted for review Clinton County decisions holding that a $3,000 bequest in the will of the late Mrs. Ella E. Turner, Martinsville, could not go to her granddaughter, Mary Ann Turner, because she attempted unsuccessfully to contest the will. Lower courts held that Verna M. Winter, a sister of Mrs. Turner, is entitled to the money under provisions of the will, against any contest.

Cigarette Gets Blame For Toledoan's Death

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A cigarette was blamed for the fire Wednesday night which burned to death Harry J. Reeves, 68. District Fire Chief Oscar Selz said Reeves apparently fell asleep in a living room chair and dropped a lighted cigarette. Damage to the house, where Reeves lived alone, was estimated at $1,500.

OSU Plans Short Course For Farmers

Young men who desire practical instruction in such areas as livestock feeding, livestock breeding, engineering, pasture and forage crops, fertility and fertilizers, poultry and pest control may want to enroll in this short course.

The date of the course is Jan. 5, 1959, through Feb. 27, 1959.

The prospective student must be a high school graduate or have satisfactory work experience and be at least 19 years of age.

Practical farm experience before enrolling in the course is highly desirable, but not absolutely necessary.

Applications for admission should be mailed well in advance of the opening date. This will aid the college in making advance arrangements.

The prospective short course student who is eligible for the program should fill out an application for admission and mail it as soon as possible to the dean in charge of short courses.

Young farmers who are interested should contact the Pickaway County Extension Office for additional information.

Dairy Meet Planned

County Dairy farmers are invited to attend a meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the Williamsport Parish Hall. Dr. William Tyznik, of the Ohio State University Department of Animal Science, will speak.

Integration on Farm

Vertical integration on the farm will be the subject of a discussion at 8 p. m. Tuesday at Scioto Twp. School. Wallace Barr, extension economist from Ohio State University, will lead the meeting.

Thomas Jefferson was the first president to be inaugurated in Washington, D. C.

1959 Cattle Prices To Stay High, Hogs Head Downward

Prices which farmers receive for their meat animals in the year ahead will depend largely on production rates, according to L. H. Barnes, Ohio State University Extension Economist.

Barnes expects cattle prices to stay fairly high, hog prices to sag, and lamb prices to remain steady or drop slightly. The economist returned recently from Washington where he attended the 36th annual Agricultural Outlook conference.

Speakers at the conference, Barnes recalls, suggested that any increase in cattle numbers sets the stage for future price declines and that a decline is probable sometime in the early 1960's. An expansion boom such as occurred in 1950-52 would lead to a price collapse. However, a moderate rate of expansion in breeding stock and a strong demand for feeder cattle will tend to hold the rate of expansion within reasonable bounds.

Lower hog prices are due soon in the wake of increased production. They are expected to sag during the winter, and 1959 price levels generally will be lower. How low hog prices will be a year from now, Barnes says, will depend on the extent of increases in next spring's farrowings. Present large supplies and low cost of feed make it almost certain that substantial increases in production are in prospect.

Sheep production also is increasing, Barnes points out. Prices will be influenced by the general level of livestock prices. Some price decrease can be expected in the future, although a relatively small decline is expceed in 1959.

4-H CLUB NEWS

The 1959 4-H Club year will start soon, at least for all club members planning to exhibit steers at any 4-H exhibit including the county fair. Any youth 10-20 years of age who wishes to exhibit steers must notify the County Extension Agent, 4-H before January 1. This can be done by calling or writing the Agriculture Extension Office or coming to the basement of the Post Office.

All members are limited to two steers for exhibit at the Pickaway County fair. We nope you will have a steer next year.

The 4-H Junior Leadership Club has postponed its annual banquet from December until March. No date could be obtained in December due to conflicts with basketball games.

4-H members who are interested in steers but are short on money should try to attend a finance meeting at 8 p. m. December 17, in the Agriculture Exensiton Office.

Earl Palm will be presen to discuss with you and your parents the financing of steers for a 4-H club project. This meeting was set up by the pen of five feeder calf project committee in hopes that you might become more interested in this project.

Wall Streeters Doubt Budget To Be Balanced

Treasury Deficit Expected ot Stir Up New Inflation Spiral

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The struggle to mold a new federal budget in the shape of economy looks as frustrating to many in Wall Street today as it looks difficult to the fiscal experts in Washington.

Economy is a fine goal but the odds are stacked against it, many believe.

And this discouragement, or cynicism, makes them feel that the current letup in inflationary pressures will last only a few more months at best.

The bulls in Wall Street seem sure of it. Consumer surveys indicate that the public expects another rise in prices, too.

Treasury deficits are only one of the inflationary pressures that from time to time send the cost of living higher. Among others are the wage-price spiral that pushes the cost of production higher; or credit inflation that comes when the rate of new investment exceeds the rate of capital formation through savings; or too little capacity to produce goods when demand is high.

The last two aren't operating just now. But the first two are. And many see continuing danger from them after the conditions now putting a brake on the rise in living costs lose their force.

Serious as this fiscal year's prospective Treasury deficit of 12 billion dollars is, bankers feel that the money managers so far are tackling the problem of containing its inflationary aspects with considerable success.

But the real misgivings — according to the Guaranty Trust Co. of New York in its December survey today—"arise from the fact that this deficit is symptomatic of a rising tide of expenditure over which no one seems to have any real control."

What basically causes distrust of the dollar, the bank holds, "is the growing fear of deficit financing as a way of life."

There are those who contend that government spending also can have anti-inflationary aspects.

This theory is that such spending stimulates the economy, causes incomes and profits to rise and thus helps the Treasury pare deficits, inspires businessmen themselves to spend more, thus increasing productivity and holding down prices, and boosts consumer spirits so that they buy more and thus create jobs.

It May Take 5 Years for Ohio GOP To Recover from Defeat, Bliss Says

By ALVIN SILVERMAN
Cleveland Plain Dealer Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — It may take the Ohio Republican Party five years to recover from the Nov. 4 election defeat, Ray C. Bliss, Ohio GOP chairman, said Wednesday.

The Buckeye Republicans absorbed one of their severest setbacks in history when they lost one U.S. Senate and three U.S. House seats, control of both General Assembly branches and the state administrative offices of governor, lieutenant governor, treasurer and attorney general.

In Bliss' opinion, however, the psychological effect the campaign had on what he described as the "sidewalk voter, the average independent," represents a much greater obstacle in the long road back than the loss of particular political positions.

The sidewalk voter, he explained, has the idea that the Republican Party represents the interests of a selected few, rather than the ordinary individual, and until he is disabused of this notion by performance and policy the GOP is in for gloomy days.

The Ohio chairman appeared neither dejected nor disillusioned as he discussed last month's balloting at length for the first time. He emphasized that he merely was taking a realistic approach to the situation.

In fact, asserted Bliss, one of the most encouraging aspects of the electoral lacing was the "quickly evidenced disposition of the Ohio Republicans to come back fighting."

Bliss, in one of the most candid appraisals he ever has given newspaper reporters, conceded that the Buckeye GOP may need some fresh candidates to get back on the winning route. But he still insisted that the prime requirement is an acceptable philosophy, an issue that a majority of the citizens will support.

The state chairman disclosed that his organization is conducting an extensive survey to show exactly how persons in many areas voted and how many of them normally were Republican voters.

He indicated, however, that this poll is more for rebuttal purposes than for discovery of new information.

As far as Bliss personally is concerned, he has no doubt whatever of what caused the GOP debacle. It was the "right-to-work" constitutional amendment, which both he and defeated U. S. Sen. John W. Bricker argued strenuously and unsuccessfully with industrial leaders and other GOP powers to keep off the ballot.

This issue, he believes, gave organized labor and other inherent Democratic voters the vehicles they needed to get out their votes — an "emotional appeal that stirred the mass of the citizenry into action" and an opportunity legitimately to spend tremendous sums of money for the principal purpose of defeating the issue and the secondary purpose of electing Democrats.

Nevertheless, he wants the findings of the survey readily at hand "so that people can't say to me that it was only local conditions, personalities or a national trend" that produced the rout.

Bliss foresees a rough pull for years by the Ohio GOP for several reasons.

One is that the next state election, in 1960, will occur in a presidential year, at which time it always has been harder for the Republicans to overcome the big-city vote.

Another is that a Democratic governor, Michael V. DiSalle, is embarking on the first four-year Ohio term for this office and the ticket is affected by the absence of a candidate for governor.

Further, DiSalle already has shown signs of developing a strong Ohio Democratic organization, something with which the GOP did not have to contend in the decade of ruggedly independent Frank J. Lausche's governorship.

In addition, it will be difficult for the Republicans, with the highly unusual experience of being in the minority in the Ohio General Assembly, to develop a "record" for the party.

Finally, by the time 1962 finally comes around, Lausche, in all probability, will be back to make inroads into the normal Republican vote.

"What we have to do right now," said Bliss, "is find out exactly what caused our defeat and immediately begin a program specifically designed to bring around the sidewalk voter. Without him, neither party can win."

Bliss declined to engage in any discussion concerning the effect Gov. C. William O'Neill had had on the whole Ohio GOP ticket, although he and O'Neill seldom see eye-to-eye on matters political.

Likewise, he declined to talk about his chances of becoming national Republican chairman, even though his name frequently has been mentioned as a successor to Meade Alcorn.

"I am working for Meade Alcorn and I like him," he said.

Detroit Strike Brings Layoff at Twinsburg

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A strike at Chrysler Corp.'s Dodge main plant in Detroit resulted in the layoff today of 400 workers at the company's Twinsburg stamping plant. A Chrysler spokesman said another 100 were laid off earlier in the week. The Detroit strike, over wage rates, has idled more than 25,000 workers in Chrysler plants, the company said.

Medics Seek SS Coverage

Elmer H. Biedenholz, district manager, Chillicothe Social Security Office, announced that in a poll taken by mail, 4,095 of the 8,960 members of the Ohio State Medical Assn. voted in favor of the inclusion of physicians in the Federal Social Security Program.

Members of the association voting in the negative numbered 2,737. Marked ballots were received from 6,832 physicians—76 per cent of the total membership of the association.

Doctors of medicine are the only major self-employed group in the nation not included at present in the old age and survivors insurance program. Proposals to remove this exemption of physicians have been before the last several sessions of the United States Congress.

The poll was conducted as a result of a mandate of the House of Delegates of the association at its annual meeting in Cincinnati last April. The results will be transmitted to the House of Delegates of the American Medical Assn. by Ohio's AMA delegates at the time of the Intern Session of the national organization in Minneapolis.

Man Dies Trying To Rescue Sister

IRONTON, Ohio (AP)—Harley Graham died a hero's death.

He ran into his burning home at nearby Forest Dale Wednesday night in an attempt to rescue his 8-year-old sister, Connie Sue, who was trapped inside. A blazing window frame fell on the 23-year-old man and both he and his sister perished.

Authorities said an oil stove exploded after it was lit, touching off the fire. Two other Graham children escaped safely from the five-room house.

Moore Is Amazed By Durelle, but Seeks Big Bouts

MONTREAL, Que. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, more amazing then ever, today set his sights on three lucrative possibilities — A return fight with Yvon Durelle and royal jousts with middleweight king Sugar Ray Robinson and heavyweight ruler Floyd Patterson.

Of the three title tilts, a summer ball park clash here with Durelle seemed the most likely after their thriller in the forum Wednesday night.

Old Man Moore's tremendous comeback to knock out the fired-up Durelle in 49 seconds of the 11th round capped one of the most exciting fights of the last 10 years.

Moore hit the deck four times, three times in a lively first round, and then rallied in the last six rounds. He dropped his wild-swinging young rival four times, including the picture-punching finale in the 11th.

"Durelle put up a great fight and can have another chance if he wants it," said the remarkable 41-year-old champion from San Diego. "I'd like another chance too at heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson."

"Yeah, Patterson, we'd like him," interjected Moore's manager Jack (Doc) Kearns. "If he doesn't fight that Swede Ingemar Johansson this summer, maybe he'd like to take on the old man. If he's not interested then there's that Sugar Ray Robinson. He and Archie would pack any stadium."

Moore was full of praise for Durelle, a 3½-1 underdog who put up a great battle.

"Durelle is one of the very top light heavyweights I have ever fought," he said. "I knew I had him after the fourth round but before that I was awfully rocky. Every knockdown was clean and fair."

Referee Jack Sharkey, the former world heavyweight champion, thought otherwise. He ruled that Moore's trip to the floor in the first round was from a push and not a punch. He'll get an argument on that one from many watchers.

A left and right to the jaw first sent the stunned master to the canvas for a nine count. He was dazed and reeling when the controversial second knockdown occurred.

The 29-year-old challenger from Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., tore after Moore in an effort to put him away for keeps. A left and right to the jaw sent Archie down again for seven.

Archie got out of that hole and several others in the next few rounds. In the fifth the crude, strong challenger again brought a blood-thirsty howl from the fans when he sent Moore crashing to the canvas with a thumping right to the jaw. This time the crafty veteran had command of his senses and, after getting up at five, held on desperately as Yvon tried to put over the crusher.

Then suddenly Archie lashed out with a right and left to the jaw that shook Durelle from head to toe. That was the beginning of the end for the Canadian and British Empire champion although you couldn't tell it then.

Durelle hit the floor for the first time in the seventh.

A six-punch volley in the 10th sent the reeling challenger to his knees and apparently finished. But the bell sounded when the count reached eight.

Moore wasted no time in the 11th. He stormed across the ring and slammed Durelle to the canvas for nine with a left and right to the jaw. Then a perfect left and right combination to the jaw put the gallant Canadian down for keeps.

Durelle was Moore's 127th knockout victim. That put Moore at the head of the all-time kayo parade. He had been tied at 126 with the late Young Stribling, a heavyweight contender more than 25 years ago.

Moore weighed 173¾, his lightest in 4 years, and Durelle 172.

Bass Grabs Collegiate Triple Crown

NEW YORK (AP)—Dick Bass, College of the Pacific's hard-running halfback, amassed major college football's triple crown in 1958, winning the scoring title and the rushing and total yardage crowns.

Final statistics from the NCAA Service Bureau disclosed today that Bass accomplished a feat that was last performed in 1937 by Byron (Whizzer) White of Colorado. White captured the triple crown that season.

Bass accumulated 1,361 yards of 205 rushing plays — an all-time high of 6.63 yards per carry, for 200 or more rushes. The 21-year-old junior collected 79 yards on 13 passes for a total offense of 1,440 yards. He scored 116 points on 18 touchdowns and eight extra points in 10 games.

Ohio State's Bob White finished second in rushing, trailing Bass by 502 yards. Randy Duncan of Iowa was runnerup in total offense with 1,406 yards. Rutgers' Billy Austin wound up 10 points behind Bass in the scoring parade. All three played a game less than Bass.

Paul Brown Says Team At Low Ebb

CLEVELAND (AP)—"We're in bad shape physically. We're at low ebb. I don't know why it should be so at this time of the year, but that's the way it is."

Coach Paul E. Brown, who rarely displays optimism about his team's chances, was talking about the Cleveland Browns and preparations for Sunday's game against the New York Giants. Odds - makers are giving the Browns a slight edge, but if Brown agreed he was keeping it to himself.

Today he had two valid complaints: injuries and bad weather.

It was frigid and snowy Wednesday at League Park, where the Browns opened their week's work. The snow as so deep "they had to plow off a piece of the field so we could run," Brown commented.

Footing was so bad the players all wore basketball shoes.

Neither Bob Gain nor offensive tackle Mike McCormack suited up or worked out, Brown said. It is questionable whether either will play Sunday.

Both were injured in last Sunday's victory over the Philadelphia Eagles, Gain suffering a foot injury and McCormack aggravating a knee that has been bothering him for some time.

Gain, a tackle, had moved to defensive end Sunday to sub for Bill Quinlan, placed on the injured list with a broken ankle bone.

Both of C Shift's wins were paced by Dallas Valentine. He registered 16 points against D Shift and came back with 19 against the Days team.

The A Casting win was led by Meyer with 14 points and Welliver with 10. Loy dumped in 10 for the losing A Finishing quintet.

Moore Is Amazed By Durelle, but Seeks Big Bouts

MONTREAL, Que. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, more amazing then ever, today set his sights on three lucrative possibilities — A return fight with Yvon Durelle and royal jousts with middleweight king Sugar Ray Robinson and heavyweight ruler Floyd Patterson.

Of the three title tilts, a summer ball park clash here with Durelle seemed the most likely after their thriller in the forum Wednesday night.

Old Man Moore's tremendous comeback to knock out the fired-up Durelle in 49 seconds of the 11th round capped one of the most exciting fights of the last 10 years.

Moore hit the deck four times, three times in a lively first round, and then rallied in the last six rounds. He dropped his wild-swinging young rival four times, including the picture-punching finale in the 11th.

"Durelle put up a great fight and can have another chance if he wants it," said the remarkable 41-year-old champion from San Diego. "I'd like another chance too at heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson."

"Yeah, Patterson, we'd like him," interjected Moore's manager Jack (Doc) Kearns. "If he doesn't fight that Swede Ingemar Johansson this summer, maybe he'd like to take on the old man. If he's not interested then there's that Sugar Ray Robinson. He and Archie would pack any stadium."

Moore was full of praise for Durelle, a 3½-1 underdog who put up a great battle.

"Durelle is one of the very top light heavyweights I have ever fought," he said. "I knew I had him after the fourth round but before that I was awfully rocky. Every knockdown was clean and fair."

Referee Jack Sharkey, the former world heavyweight champion, thought otherwise. He ruled that Moore's trip to the floor in the first round was from a push and not a punch. He'll get an argument on that one from many watchers.

A left and right to the jaw first sent the stunned master to the canvas for a nine count. He was dazed and reeling when the controversial second knockdown occurred.

The 29-year-old challenger from Baie Ste. Anne, N.B., tore after Moore in an effort to put him away for keeps. A left and right to the jaw sent Archie down again for seven.

Archie got out of that hole and several others in the next few rounds. In the fifth the crude, strong challenger again brought a blood-thirsty howl from the fans when he sent Moore crashing to the canvas with a thumping right to the jaw. This time the crafty veteran had command of his senses and, after getting up at five, held on desperately as Yvon tried to put over the crusher.

Then suddenly Archie lashed out with a right and left to the jaw that shook Durelle from head to toe. That was the beginning of the end for the Canadian and British Empire champion although you couldn't tell it then.

Durelle hit the floor for the first time in the seventh.

A six-punch volley in the 10th sent the reeling challenger to his knees and apparently finished. But the bell sounded when the count reached eight.

Moore wasted no time in the 11th. He stormed across the ring and slammed Durelle to the canvas for nine with a left and right to the jaw. Then a perfect left and right combination to the jaw put the gallant Canadian down for keeps.

Durelle was Moore's 127th knockout victim. That put Moore at the head of the all-time kayo parade. He had been tied at 126 with the late Young Stribling, a heavyweight contender more than 25 years ago.

Moore weighed 173¾, his lightest in 4 years, and Durelle 172.
